The minutes were read and approved with a minor amendment that "It was proposed by Charles and seconded by Sue that a £20 honorarium is paid to Mrs Wiscombe, independent examiner." should be amended to "It was proposed by Charles and seconded by Sue that a £25 honorarium is paid to Mrs Wiscombe, independent examiner".

4. Matters arising:

None

5. Chairman's report:

- Woodbury Community Hall is now part of the Co-op local community fund. So the more you spend at the Co-op, the more we get towards our refurbishment fund!!
- New fireproof and blackout curtains have been purchased and fitted improving the look of the hall and keeping it warmer when they are closed. We have re-cycled the old curtains and hung them on new rails in the ladies toilet.
- We have improved the information about the hall with the introduction of a website (www.woodburycommunityhall.uk)
- An information book for hall users is now on the table in the foyer.
- The hatches from the hall to the kitchen have been replaced with new, roller shutters, improving the looks and safety.
- John, a member of the art classes held at the hall has supplied and installed a new picture hanging system. He has also hung a number of his paintings for all of us to enjoy. Thank you John.
- We have replaced the old, smaller table with 12 new, smaller folding tables.

Plans for the year ahead.

- The "Tesco Bags of Help scheme - Money for local communities" will be in place for Woodbury Community Hall during March and April at the Axminster and Lyme Regis Tesco stores. So please increase our chances of getting the maximum amount of money available by putting your token in the right slot!

- We plan to run an Open Day, at some point, so users of the hall can meet and share views etc
- We are going through the final stages of planning for the much needed redecoration of the hall, both inside and out.
- We have also had plans drawn up for a refurbishment of the kitchen. The first step is to provide an additional doorway from the hall into the kitchen to make for easier access.

6. Treasurer's report:

Is attached – as produced by Charles White – Treasurer.

It was proposed by Graham Godbeer and seconded by Iris Mills that the accounts were agreed by the committee.

It was proposed by Charles White and Seconded by Philip Powell that a £25 honorarium is paid to Mrs Wiscombe, independent examiner.
